LEST WE FORGET 1983

Volume LXVII UNION UNIVERSITY

Jackson, Tennessee

Man as a progressive creation is in a constant state of development. Yet the purpose in life is accompanied with a promise of fulfillment. Our Creator realized that in order to obtain this promise, Man must rely on something greater than Himself. Hope is that companion.

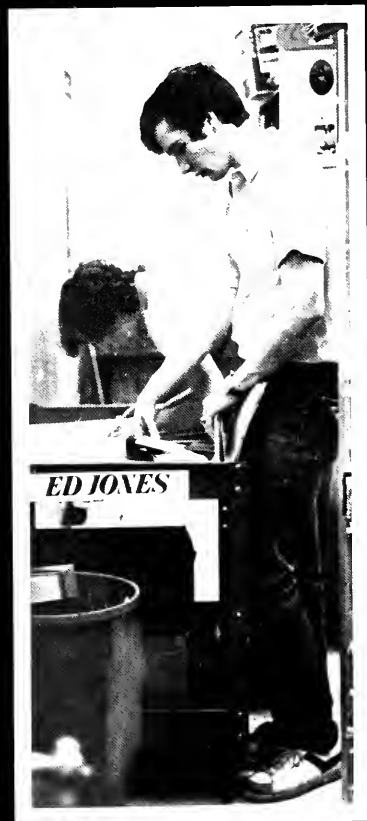

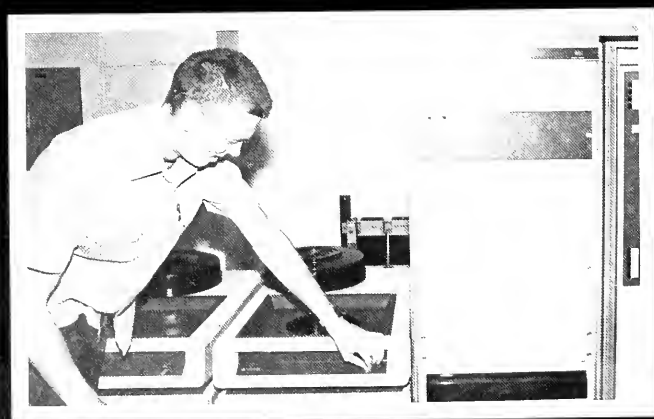

Hope pushes forward in their search those who are seeking. Hope comforts those who are confused by the pressure and the pain. We as seekers cry out against mere existence and demand life in its fullest. Through it all, Hope remains . . . For those who hope in the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not grow weary; they shall walk and not faint.

Isaiah 40:31

263 Graduates Say Good-bye To Union

Two hundred and sixty-three students waited four years (and in some instances even longer) for that May day, for that brief moment with Dr. Craig, and finally for that diploma!

A total of 239 May graduates and 24 July graduates were honored during the morning Baccalaureate service, afternoon reception and evening commencement program on May 29. Twenty-two nurses were represented in the third class to be graduated from the Bachelor of Science nursing program, nearly double last year's number.

Dr. Chester Swor, retired Mississippi College administrator, delivered the morning Baccalaureate sermon. Rev. Donald Wildmon, United Methodist minister and founder of the National Federation for Decency, addressed the commencement audience.

The Highest Academic Achievement Award was presented to Keith McClain for having the highest G.P.A., 3.97. Elizabeth Ann Buntin received the Elizabeth Tigrett Medal for excellence in citizenship, character, leadership, scholarship and school service. All in all, it was a day to remember.

Rev. Wildmon challenged the class to maintain strength of character in a changing world.

Registration and Moving In Means Hugs, Hellos and Few Hassles

"Hi! How was your summer?" "Where do you live on campus?" "What's your major?" "Try to get that class, I passed it!" Etc., etc., etc. The familiar lingo of registration and moving in was noted by 1,374 students enrolled this fall at Union. This is the first year that all residents are housed on the campus. The addition of 60 additional spaces allowed Union to maintain last year's student population.

The freshmen once again had the opportunity to get acquainted with college life a little earlier by attending orientation. The welcome parties provided the upperclassmen the necessary time to catch up and when classes finally got underway the new friendships offered the needed comfort and security with understanding smiles.

Reception Opens Year With Style

Curiosity forces you back to your mailbox for the third time that day, and your efforts are rewarded. The invitation to the President's Reception was there to announce the annual event. The President's Reception allows the students the opportunity each year to meet the faculty, administration, staff, and Dr. Robert Craig in a pleasant but formal setting. It's a chance to see another side of the people we think we know so well.

This marked Dr. and Mrs. Craig's fifteenth year at Union, and the couple greeted the students with their usual ease and charm. The cafeteria was transformed with the tables of delicious food and punch and the atmosphere produced by students in formal attire. The reception marks just another example of Union's attempts to develop every aspect of the students' lives.

Construction Builds New Hopes for Union

Construction began in November of last year on Union's new Student Activity building and enlarged Bookstore. This project is the largest single expansion of the Penick Academic Complex since the building was occupied in the fall of 1975. The 170,000 - square-foot classroom building will be extended 153 feet toward Walker Road with the Main Corridor running 85 feet of that length, stopping at the entrance to the new Olympic-size swimming pool. Dr. Robert Craig states that a total of 26,597 - square-feet will be added to the building.

The project, expected to cost nearly $900,000, is being financed through pledges to the Expansion Program which raised $1.75-million for enlargement of the complex. Completion of the addition, expected in December of 1983, is contingent on those pledges.

The Student Activity Building will provide a six-lane swimming pool, two racquetball courts, a mini-gym for intramurals and campus activities, dressing rooms, a large game room, and an office and storage area. The fully-functioning student center will enclose 18,437 - square-feet adjacent to the Athletic Department.

The Bookstore will more than triple its space through the construction effort. Manager Louise Lynch says that the expansion will allow the bookstore to offer more reference and general interest books, enlarge the soft goods area, and possibly add a line of packaged convenience foods. The college post office, which shares a wall and is supervised by bookstore personnel, will be relocated in the new bookstore area with its mail boxes increased from 1,100 to 1,500, with future expansion potential of up to 2,000.

The Student Services Center will expand into a portion of the area vacated by the bookstore, said Vice President of Student Affairs Maggie Nell Brewer. Though plans have not been finalized, tentative arrangements would remodel the area to include a larger medical clinic, office space for the SGA and related functions, expanded testing center, and a possible career information center adjacent to the Director of Placement/Counseling.

Other changes that have occurred within the past year include the relocation of the Computer Center and the Religious Affairs Office, the erecting of the famous "Sugar Shack," and the new Alpha Tau Omega fraternity lodge. In the past seven years, Union has greatly expanded beyond its original structure. With this expansion comes the promise of continued growth.

ATO makes new addition to fraternity row.

An enlarged Bookstore will eliminate present overcrowded conditions.

Trees were cleared and sidewalks removed to enlarge Penick Complex.

BSU Retreat Focuses on Building

That first month of school is wrapped up, and you feel like tying the whole semester into a neat package for early disposal. Frustration and/or friends urge you to take some time off. That's when words like "retreat" gain added emphasis. October's BSU Fall Retreat meant time away for over sixty students.

"Building on the Foundations" was selected as the theme, and former Union BSU president David Burton led the Bible study.

Chaperones Scott Brewer and Nancy Ross tried to maintain their sanity while the students discovered the canoeing, football, volleyball, trails, and fireplaces of beautiful Brandon Springs.

Time to laugh, learn, and develop a better understanding of one's relationship with God helped to intensify the results of "Building on the Foundations."

Halloween creates new faces around Union such as these for the annual costume contests.

Hobo night brought out the more elite crowd on campus for tin can stew.

ARA Serves Food & Fun

It's where we meet, where we mingle, where we act somewhat foolish, where few books can be found, and last but not least where we eat. The cafeteria is definitely one of the favored spots on campus and such atmosphere is not entirely accidental. Joy, Paul, Rick and all the staff have carefully planned a year that combines food and fun.

The A.R.A. Food Services are dedicated to serving good food. But Union is fortunate in that there is always that desire for something special to enhance the time spent around those familiar tables. Whether it's whimsical waffles, carnivals, pumpkin cuttings, Homecoming feasts, banana splits, Hobo nights, or Sunday's welcomed roast beef, the students know that someone cares enough to add that special spice of life.

Opera Workshop Presents 'Princess Ida'

Spring term saw four performances turn Union into a "college of feminine knowledge" as the winter term opera workshop presented "Princess Ida." Dr. Joseph Blass directed leads Dr. Larry Smith, Mary Roby, Carole Howard and the remaining cast in Gilbert and Sullivan's interpretation of the continuing battle of the sexes.

A delightful chorus and the sparkling professors of a women's institution supported Miss Roby and Miss Howard in the shared lead. Determined to reject the childhood betrothal and men, Princess Ida discourages all relationships. After a clever impersonation, discovery of the deception and a contest of strength, Dr. Smith's Hilarion leads the men to conquest.

Resulting polished performance meant winter term workouts were rewarded for the cast of "Princess Ida."

Dr. Blass directed the cast and provided backstage supporting roles.

Carole Howard remains obstinate throughout Dr. Smith's pleading.

Dr. Smith, Ricky Isbell and Jim Pinkston eliminate some minor "problems."

David Adkins makes a move on Brenda Goodwill, but to no avail.

These Are the Best of Times In Spite of All

Yes, Union, "These Are the Best of Times" in spite of a rained-out parade and ballgame. Although it may be hard to imagine a homecoming without a men's varsity game, it will be a homecoming to remember for years and reunions to come.

A week of glimpses into past decades proved to bring out a few "flappers" and "yippies" but poodle skirts and T-shirts were the biggest craze. Participation ran high for class playday in the gym, but the rain helped to dampen some spirits as well as Santa Claus during the parade. The formal dinner with its seafood and candlelight satisfied the romantic and the gourmet alike.

The basketball games Thursday night meant split decisions against David Lipscomb. The women initiated the excitement with a fast-moving contest against the previously undefeated team. The men fell by a 3-point margin in an equally close contest. Afterwards, weary fans attended the "late show" where the Academy Award winning "Chariots of Fire" was showing.

Friday, Union's men and women rallied to mourn the "passing" of the homecoming victims in a mock funeral. Following the pep session, the parade defiantly overcame the elements with a soggy trip through Jackson.

Finally, Saturday arrived but unfortunately Arkansas College did not. The men's game had to be canceled, but the women's efforts showed Union's determination to keep on in spite of it all. Western Kentucky's women triumphed, but not without witnessing a record-breaking performance by senior Lisa Caudle.

The week's wondering concluded at halftime of the matchup when Rita Simpson was crowned the 1982 queen.

So, yes, Union, in years to come we will all remember that in spite of it all — "These Are the Best of Times."

Ingenuity Creates Homecoming Memories

Homecoming denotes reunions and recapturing old friendships, but for the students who are just beginning their memory-making experience homecoming means testing their creativity. This year offered chances for the brave few to dress in the appropriate attire for a certain decade. Bret Scott and Tammy Trexler proved to be the outstanding fashion designers for the week.

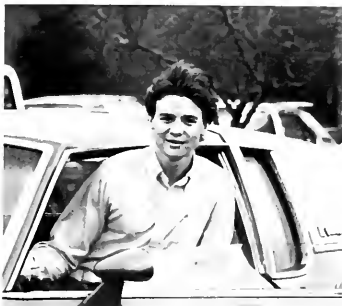

For those who like to decorate cars rather than themselves, the parade meant another opportunity to see what Union can do. Chi Omega captured the trophy for the best entry with their version of Pac-man. The Freshman class placed second in the contest.

If the rain kept the possible participants away from the parade, then Saturday's display contest was their second chance to show off. The SAE men "wrapped up" the fraternity award with their crepe paper tribute to the basketball teams. The freshman class accepted their trophy for the class division of the contest, while Zeta women took the sorority title.

Costume day brought the most participation of the week, according to SGA. A winning representative Melinda Voss. The wacky games and contests made trophy to the senior class.

Union students proved that this time of the year has something to offer those in school in addition to providing a reunion and a time for reminiscing to returning alumni. Homecoming is definitely what you make it, and Union ingenuity once again made it a success.

Alumni Recall 'Best Times'

Ten reunions were sponsored by various organizations during the homecoming morning registration period. Former bookstore workers, math and computer science majors, Class of 1932, Lambda Chi Alpha, psychology and sociology majors, Rutledge History Club, Class of 1972, Class of 1957, Sigma Alpha Iota and Phi Mu Alpha, and the Cardinal and Cream and Lest We Forget staffs met over refreshments until 11:30 while the P.E. Club, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and Zeta Tau Alpha waited until after the women's contest.

During the Award's Luncheon, members of the Class of 1932 and 1957 were recognized by Dr. Craig as 50- and 25-year graduates. Roger Murray, Jr., president of the Alumni Association, presided over the agenda which included honoring four individuals. The Distinguished Faculty-Staff Award went to Assistant Professor of Biology Elsie Smith, while Bill Bates, Director of Special Projects and Corporate Support, received the Honorary Alumnus Award. Rev. Kester Cotton of Medina was honored with the Distinguished Service Award and Ethel Reed Watters of Jackson was presented the Distinguished Alumnus Award.

Record Set and Queen Crowned On Damp Day

Homecoming day could probably be considered one of the rarest types in comparison to the traditional idea. Marked by several disappointments such as the "rained out" game against Arkansas College and the upsetting loss to Western Kentucky, the 1982 celebration might have been determined an unusual experience. The rain and defeat could not dampen the Union spirit, however, and the women faced the stiff competition with hopeful determination. The Lady Toppers simply had the shooting edge of an outstanding 61% to boost the final score to 106-79.

Senior Lisa Caudle provided the highlight of the women's contest with a national NAIA record-setting performance of 21 field goals. Shooting 70%, the All-American scored a total of 42 points. Cassandra Howard added 13 points as the second leading scorer and Ester Coleman contributed 12.

During halftime, Mrs. Grace Williams presented the trophy given in her honor to the outstanding female athletes. Receiving the award this year were Lisa Caudle, Ester Coleman, and Lisa Jackson. The George Schuler Award recognizing the outstanding male athlete was presented to Tony Jones.

Rita Simpson was also announced as the new Homecoming queen during the halftime festivities. Jana Adkisson, Beth Heuiser, Jan Pearson, and Angela Stewart comprised the court.

Union Sees "A Time for Love"

The 1982 Miss Union University Pageant transformed the G.M. Savage Memorial Chapel into the well-staged setting of a preliminary to the Miss Tennessee Pageant. "A Time for Love" supplied the theme for the festivities under the direction of Marta Wilson with Andy Dailey serving as producer.

Doris "Cousin Tunny" Freeman brought over twenty-five years of pageant experience to her role as mistress of ceremonies. Entertainment was furnished by the 1983 Pageant Singers, alisa Clift, Carole Howard, Philip Long, Jim Pinkston, Kelvin Smith, and Director Susan Graves. Providing musical back - up was the Union University Stage Band directed by Charles Huffman.

Kevin Bass assisted the producer and director while working on the script with Jana Jones. Other committee members include: David Harrison, set director; Ron Land, sound director; Steve Martin, assistant sound director; Denise Stevenson, faculty technical adviser; Phi Mu Alpha, Greg Robinson, and Kevin Ezell, sound crew; Frank Christie, stage crew and ticket sales; Beth Gibson and Karen Smith, pageant booklets; Maggie Nell Brewer, faculty adviser; Ruth Lincoln and Susan Sitton, backstage crew.

Jana Dee Addisson, 1982 Miss Union University provided a piano selection and crowned Melanie Gay Campbell (see page 44) for the 1983 reign and trip to Miss Tennessee.

The Queen and Her Court

Lisa Carol Jones, 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jones, Toone, was first runner-up. A junior, she is majoring in accounting and represented Women's Housing.

Second runner-up, Misty Lea Sellers, 21, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sellers, Jackson, is a senior majoring in physical education and health. A cheerleader, she was sponsored by the Physical Education Majors Club.

Third runner-up was Jenny Byth Thompson, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Thompson, Trenton. A freshman majoring in accounting, she was sponsored by the Pre-Legal Society.

Sherri Percer, 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Percer, Arlington, was fourth runner-up and Miss Congeniality. She is a sophomore majoring in nursing and represented the Freshman Class.

Shown here performing a musical drama as her talent selection, Sherri Percer was chosen by the contestants as Miss Congeniality.

Melanie Campbell, also chosen as Miss Union University 1983, was awarded the Beverly Williams Lewis Talent Award.

Melanie Gay Campbell was crowned the new Miss Union University by Jana Dee Adkisson, 1982's winner. Miss Campbell represented music fraternities Sigma Alpha Iota and Phi Mu Alpha in the competition.

The 20-year-old junior is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Robert Campbell of Shrewsbury, MA, and formerly of Rockwood, TN. She is majoring in office administration while at Union.

Miss Campbell, a former Miss Madison County, now proceeds to the Miss Tennessee Pageant. During the campus preliminary, she won the Talent Award with a vocal medley of "You'll Never Walk Alone" and "Climb Every Mountain."

Who's Who Adds Thirty

Thirty Union seniors have been selected as outstanding students by the nationally recognized directory, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Each year nominations from the faculty are considered in the selection process. The candidates are chosen according to exceptional scholarship, leadership ability and character.

The 1983 directory carries the names of students from more than 1,300 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, and several foreign nations. Outstanding students have been honored in the annual directory since it was first published in 1934.

Mr. and Miss Union are elected annually by the student body from a list of eight nominees selected by the Student Government Association. Each nominee must have attended Union consecutively during their junior and senior years and must have at least a 2.75 GPA. They are chosen according to popularity, participation in activities and clubs, and loyalty to Union.

Organizations

Fall Season Opens With A Roar

The 1982-83 theatre season began with the classic George Bernard Shaw story of faith, Androcles and the Lion. As Christians of the first century, Androcles and his friends are forced to flee from the Romans. Androcles interrupts his flight to help a lion with a thorn in its paw. The Christians are captured and each must decide between maintaining his faith and being put to death or compromising his beliefs for freedom.

Shaw interprets Christianity to the Christians in this show that is both light-hearted and profound.

The Emperor and the Lion seem to have similar taste in Grecian robes.

Some of the cast and crew in a relaxed moment gather around director Denise Stevenson.

Androcles, Bret Scott, examines the Lion's paw for the thorn.

Lavinia, Lygia Nicari, cannot betray her faith even though love for the Roman Captain, John Longworth, overwhelms her.

"The Good Doctor" Comes To Dinner

Three nights in January were set aside for the Union University Dinner Theatre. The event this year included a roast beef buffet and "The Good Doctor," Neil Simon's adaptation of Anton Chekhov's stories. "The Good Doctor" is a collection of vignettes linked together by the character of the writer, who was portrayed by Michael Barnett. Each of the vignettes is designed to provide some insight into human nature. Other cast members included Karen Campbell, Adele Dunham, Steve Maness, Orlandus Moss, Jr., Luanne Palmer, Bret Scott, Cyndi Sipe, Richard Stevenson, and Carla Yarbrough. The production was directed by Denise Stevenson. Eric Barron, Marty Culpepper, Sara Goehring, Crystal Hankla, John Longworth, and Lygia Nicar served as the production staff.

Karen Campbell, Nina, reads from Chekhov's The Three Sisters in "The Audition."

Bret Scott, "The Drowned Man," prepares to dive while Michael Barnett, the writer, looks on.

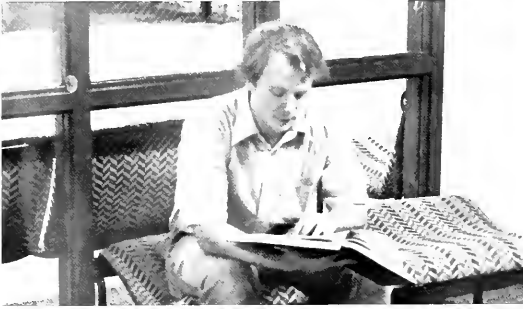

Richard Stevenson soon regrets not helping Adele Dunham in "The Helpless Creature."

Union University Chorus

The Union University Chorus is under the direction of Dr. Kenneth Hartley. The group is open to any interested student with two major performances given each year. This year, a "Christmas Oratorio" by J.S. Bach was presented without accompaniment. Chorus performances are broadcast each year by local radio stations.

Union Singers

Union University's main touring group is Singers. Each year the members dedicate the fall semester to preparing for the spring tour. This year's tour took the group throughout the southeast. Singers often perform for Union students during chapel services and on other special occasions. Membership is by audition only. The group is under the direction of Dr. Kenneth Hartley.

Stage and Symphonic Bands

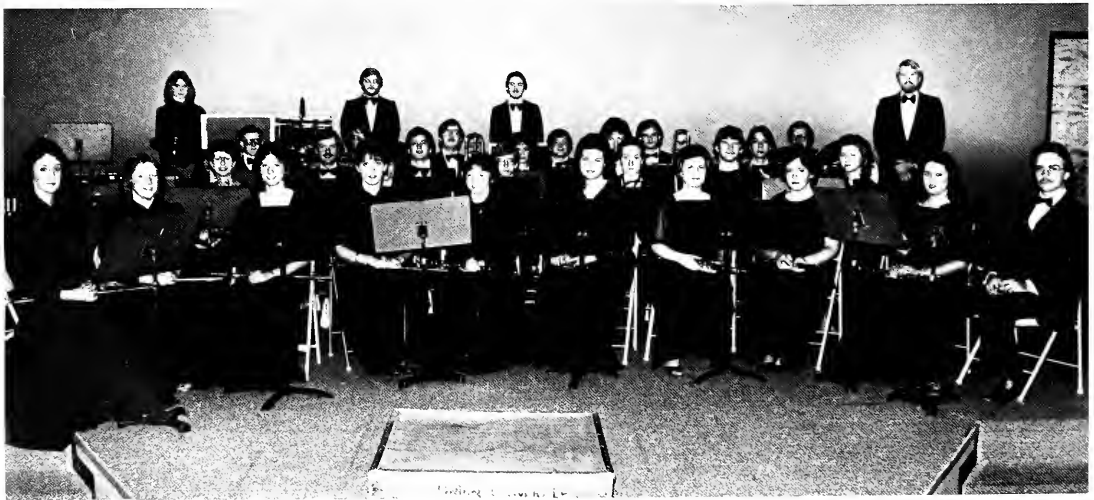

What would a Union ballgame be without the Stage Band to cheer us on and inspire the team? This is just one of the ways the Stage Band serves the school. The group also provides various kinds of popular music for the Miss Union pageant and other campus events. This talented group is under the direction of Mr. Charles Huffman.

The Symphonic Band provides a formal concert that is broadcast over a local radio station each year. The musicians that compose this group are chosen for their talent and dedication. They provide the music for graduation each year. The Symphonic Band is under the direction of Mr. David McClune.

Proclamation and Covenant

Membership in Proclamation is limited to music majors who must audition. It is a representative organization that spreads Union's Christian commitment through its musical performances each year. High schools, clubs, and churches are visited. The group is under the direction of Dr. Kenneth Hartley.

Dr. Larry Smith directs Covenant, a group composed of music majors and minors. The group is selected by audition. Covenant promotes Union University through the several shows the members perform off campus each year. The group frequently entertains churches, conventions, and civic groups. Covenant also performs during chapel services.

Cardinal and Cream

The Cardinal and Cream is the student newspaper of Union University. It is published by the students of Journalism 213 and 214 and by an editorial staff. The paper attempts to be of service to the school. Students may submit any written work to the Cardinal and Cream.

Each semester means a change in the editorial staff. The Fall 1982 editor was Kellye Carpenter. Her staff included Victor Buhler, Darlene Carr, and Leigh Anne Stegall. For the Spring 1983 editions Victor Buhler served as editor with Leigh Anne Stegall as an associate editor and Brenda Robertson and Orlandus Moss, Jr. as assistants. Robert Sharp served as business manager for Fall. He also served the same position on the Lest We Forget staff. George McCloud took over the business manager's position in the spring.

Betty Foellinger deserves a special "thank you" for her dedication as adviser. A special thanks is also appropriate for all those who have contributed in any way to the newspaper.

Lest We Forget

The Lest We Forget staff has attempted to bring together the people and events that have made this year at Union so special. This effort has been accomplished through long hours of hard work, frantic attempts to meet deadlines, many reshot pictures, and a few tears. Editors, staff members, photographers, typists, and countless others have contributed.

Our efforts were organized under the capable direction of Editor-in-Chief Anna Scarbrough and Associate Editor Karen Campbell, who brought our individual pages together and turned them into a yearbook. Our editors also have the job of pushing us onward when we were behind, solving our problems with pictures and body copy, and inspiring us when we thought we were just too tired to work any more.

The staff would like to thank Joe Westbury for coming to our rescue on so many occasions and Ron Barry for his help in the Athletics section. To Mrs. Betty Foellinger we extend a special thanks for her love, encouragement, and devotion.

Sigma Tau Delta and The Torch

Students majoring or minoring in English or majoring in English/Journalism and having a B average in English may become members of Sigma Tau Delta, a national English honor society. Union's chapter was founded in 1979. It is sponsored by Dr. George E. Clark.

This year, the group began an award for the Outstanding freshman English paper which was presented in the spring. Other Sigma Tau Delta activities included a celebration of William Shakespeare's birthday and a meeting dedicated to creative writing.

The Torch, a yearly publication, is a collection of the best creative works produced by the students and faculty of Union. It includes poems, short stories, musical compositions, essays, drawings, paintings, and photographs. All of the material is selected and compiled by a Student Editorial Committee of six members. One freshman is added to the committee each year. The publication is under the direction of Dr. Ernest Pinson, but is independent of any department. The publication is made available to students in the spring semester of the school year.

Honors Student Association

The Honors Student Association is open to all students participating in Honors courses. The organization, which was founded in 1980, is an extension of the Honors Program. Interdisciplinary study is encouraged. The HSA sponsored a "Biggest Turkey on Campus" contest to raise money for the Arthritis Foundation. A retreat was held for members at the Union lodge at Birdsong. Rev. Richard Smith was guest speaker. Dr. Paul Brand also spoke to the group.

Alpha Chi

Alpha Chi is a member of the Association of College Honor Societies. The Tennessee Beta Chapter has been active at Union since it was founded in 1922. This year's sponsors are Dr. Louise Bentley, Dr. Ernest Pinson, and Dr. Joseph Tucker. The group emphasizes all academics and encourages scholarship.

Officers are elected by the group. The president and the secretary must be seniors and the vice president and treasurer juniors. This process assures equal representation of the two classes.

Members must maintain a GPA of 3.5 or above and be in the top ten percent of their class. Membership is restricted to juniors and seniors.

Each year, the group sends representatives to the regional convention and holds seminars on various academic subjects of interest to its members. Last year's convention was held in Charleston, S.C. Union was represented by Dr. Ernest Pinson, Karen Campbell, Janet Reid, and Mike Taylor. Karen and Janet presented papers. This year, several delegates attended the Alpha Chi National Convention at San Antonio, Texas.

"Star Wars," "Star Trek II," "Chariots of Fire," and "Rocky II" came to Union courtesy of the 1982-83 Student Government Association. And that's not all! Movies were only a part of the SGA's efforts to improve campus life. Concerts offered musical entertainment. For those who enjoy the sights as well as the sounds, there was the Miss Union and Mr. Campus contests. Homecoming Week was also under the supervision of the SGA with Melinda Moore serving as the coordinator.

Senate provides opportunities for students to actively participate in decisions affecting our campus. Every other Wednesday night, representatives from throughout the student body met to deal with legislation such as dormitory television reception, smoother pre-registration procedures, and the grading system.

Resident Life Board and Prexy Club

The Prexy Club is an association of the student leaders of Union University. It is composed of the SGA officers and the presidents of all campus organizations. The purpose of the Prexy Club is to bring about a better understanding between the organizations and to give these group leaders an opportunity to exchange useful information and ideas. The group meets monthly with a member of Union's administration. These meetings include breakfast and a guest speaker.

The Resident Life Board works in cooperation with the Dorm Councils to make life on campus more enjoyable. Various special events, such as movies and parties, are scheduled throughout the school year to entertain the students. The adviser for this organization is Men's Housing Director Mr. Dave Oran.

Men's and Women's Dorm Councils

The Men's and Women's Dorm Councils are elected by the residents of each complex. There is one dorm representative per fifty residents. Residents may bring suggestions and ideas concerning dorm life to members of the Councils. The groups work with the directors to plan fun activities and to make decisions concerning the rules and regulations of the complexes. This year, the Councils sponsored movies, street parties, and contests. These events help students who live on campus get to know one another. The Dorm Councils also have the responsibility of managing dorm dues and fees. Each Council meets monthly. The appropriate number of freshman representatives are added to the Councils each year.

Baptist Student Union

The Baptist Student Union is designed to meet the need for community fellowship on Union's campus. The group meets Monday and Thursday nights and is open to the entire student body. BSU activities include ministries both on and off campus. The Coffee House, usually "open" on selected Thursday nights, gives students an opportunity to use their talents in praise of Jesus Christ.

The BSU Council is a group of leaders within the organization who work together to provide unity.

The Nursing Home Ministry spreads the gospel to elderly persons who cannot attend church regularly.

Members of the Backyard Bible Club combine a love for missions and a love for children as they travel to communities and explain the gospel through games and stories.

Special Ministries

The Baptist Student Union is responsible for several off-campus service organizations. These groups minister to persons in need and to those who cannot attend regular church services.

The Sunshine Puppeteers provide Christian entertainment for children and adults. This group also performs during regular meetings of BSU and BCF.

The Jail and Workhouse Ministries serve the needs of the persons housed there. This is one of BSU's main witnessing facilities.

BSU Ensemble is designed to utilize the talents of the various members in musical praise of Jesus Christ.

The Drama Team travels to surrounding churches to perform skits and monologues as a form of creative worship. This ministry is especially useful for witnessing to young adult audiences.

Each of these ministries serves in a special and distinct way, but all work together to spread the word of Jesus Christ.

Baptist Young Women & Church Related Vocations

Baptist Young Women is an organization devoted to spreading the word of Jesus Christ by supporting mission programs. The group participates in "Missionary's Kid" day to raise funds for foreign and domestic missions. The group actively promotes the missionary work of the Southern Baptist Convention. Meetings are held bi-monthly. The group holds a "Big Sister-Little Sister" Christmas party and a spring banquet every year.

Church Related Vocation is a program designed to combine scholarship and spiritual and academic guidance for the student planning to enter into full-time Christian service. Any student who is interested in devoting his life to any facet of the ministry of Jesus Christ is urged to become a member. CRV is under the sponsorship of Religious Activities. The members meet monthly with an administrator or faculty member.

Ministerial Association and Black Christian Fellowship

The Ministerial Association is an organization designed to serve the needs of those who plan to become ministers. The group meets monthly on Wednesday mornings for a prayer breakfast. This provides a time of fellowship and praise for the members. The MA participated in the BSU Fall Retreat and is active in various campus activities.

Black Christian Fellowship has been an active organization on campus this year. The group, which meets monthly, has added a BCF choir, under the direction of Sonya Barbee. Union's BCF attended the annual BCF convention which was held in Jackson, Mississippi. BCF and BSU enjoyed a joint Thanksgiving service which included a performance by the BSU puppets.

P.E. Majors Club and FCA

Union students who are majoring or minoring in Physical Education are eligible for membership in the Physical Education Majors Club. The purpose of this organization is to make the student aware of job opportunities available in the field of physical education. This year the group participated in the Jackson Marathon.

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes is a group composed of students and others in the area of athletics who want to spread the word of Jesus Christ and encourage others to do the same. These athletes and their coaches and managers have earned varsity letters in high school or college. The goal of the FCA is to develop its members' skills as athletes and to help them grow spiritually. The FCA raises money each year to help a fellow Bulldog or Lady Bulldog in need of financial assistance. The group is under the direction of Coach Ron Barry.

Phi Sigma Iota and Linguae Mundi

Phi Sigma Iota, Union's foreign language honor society, was founded in 1980. The society strives to recognize achievement in the field of foreign language. Membership is limited to juniors and seniors with a 3.0 average. The group encourages international enrichment through the use and study of foreign language.

Linguae Mundi incorporates the studies of all the foreign languages taught on Union's campus. The group meets regularly and holds an annual banquet. This year's banquet was held at the Madison Room of the Holiday Inn. Various foreign foods are served each year. The banquet is a reflection of Linguae Mundi's efforts to emphasize the customs of foreign countries as well as the languages. Mrs. Cynthia Jayne serves as sponsor.

Sigma Alpha Iota

"This rose was given to me by my big sister who is a member of Sigma Alpha Iota, an international music fraternity for women. It signifies sisterly love and everlasting friendship."

The SAI pledges echo these familiar phrases in fall and spring of each year. To become a member in the organization that seeks to further the development of music in America and in foreign countries, a young woman must have a major or minor in music and a high academic standing.

Sigma Alpha Iota was founded on June 12, 1903, with the purpose of forming chapters of music students to uphold the highest ideals of a musical education.

Union's chapter, Gamma Sigma, sponsors two musicals annually and a Christmas bazaar. In connection with Phi Mu Alpha, SAI awards the Ben West Music Scholarship.

Phi Mu Alpha

The men of Phi Mu Alpha are dedicated to the music fraternity's beliefs in the advancement of music in America, the development of true fraternal spirit, and the encouragement of loyalty to the Alma Mater. This loyalty was demonstrated when men of Phi Mu Alpha delivered a moving rendition of the "Star-Spangled Banner" at the 1982 Homecoming. Carol Walker was chosen as the 1982-83 Phi Mu Alpha Sweetheart.

Phi Mu Alpha was actively involved in the West Tennessee Instrumental and Vocal Solo and Ensemble Festival that is held at Union each year. The group also participated in the Special Olympics as judges. The men of Phi Mu Alpha perform during the Union University Singers tour each year as well. The group held a Christmas dinner and a spring banquet at the Petroleum Club in Memphis.

Student Tennessee Education Association

Members of the Student Tennessee Education Association are given the opportunity to student teach at the elementary and secondary levels. In appreciation of the teachers who cooperate in this program, two teas are held annually. Union's Frank L. Wells Chapter of the STEA held the regional meeting on December 6. The group sponsored a "Secret Pals" program with the faculty during American Education Week. Members also participated in Homecoming and sponsored a candidate for the Miss Union pageant. It is hoped that through the STEA, prospective teachers will graduate with a fuller understanding of the history, ethics, and program of their profession.

Lamplighters

Lamplighters is an organization open to any nursing student. Its purpose is to serve its members academically and socially. The members learn about various aspects of the medical field, prepare to assume the responsibilities of a Registered Nurse and are provided with a Christian atmosphere through Lamplighters. The organization also makes it possible for first-year students to be assigned to a second-year student for guidance and study tips.

IFC and Panhellenic Council

The Inter-Fraternity Council is composed of members from each of Union's three fraternities. It serves as a governing body, responsible for composing and enforcing regulations for recruitment and rush. The group is also in charge of handling all inter-fraternity affairs.

Union's sororities, Chi Omega and Zeta Tau Alpha, each have three delegates to the Panhellenic Council. This group is an extension of the National Panhellenic Council. Union's Council strives to uphold social standards set by the University and to maintain intersorority relations.

Each of these groups serves during rush week by answering questions and informing new Union students about Greek life. Academic excellence and Christian fellowship are promoted.

Fraternity Sweethearts

Alpha Tau Omega chose Joy Crouse as their 1982-83 Sweetheart. Joy is a 22-year-old senior from Greenfield, Tn. who is majoring in accounting and business administration. She was chosen during the ATO Sweetheart Banquet, which was held in November.

Kelley Churchill was announced as Lambda Chi Alpha Crescent Girl during the fraternity's White Rose Banquet, held at the Memphis Petroleum Club. Kelley, already a Registered Nurse, is a senior working toward a B.S. in nursing. Caruthersville, Mo. is her home town.

A 21-year-old senior from Ripley, Tn., Lu Anne Webb, was chosen as the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Queen. Lu Anne, an accounting major, was announced during the fraternity's banquet at the Petroleum Club in Memphis.

Alpha Tau Omega

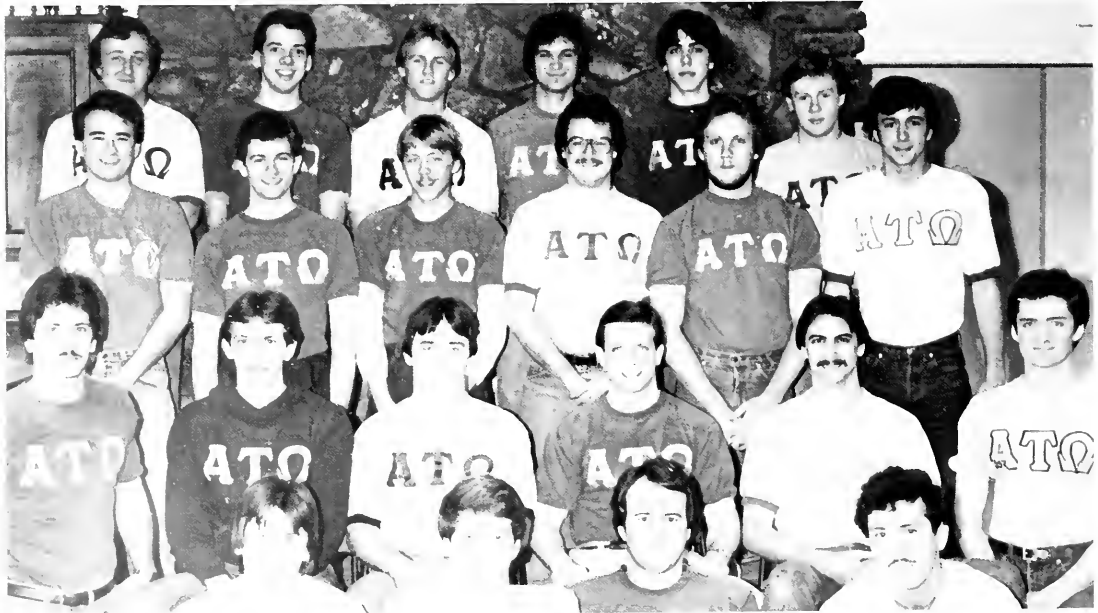

Alpha Tau Omega was founded in 1865. Union's Beta Tau chapter has been active since 1894. The goal of the organization is to bring the bond of brotherhood to men. Union's chapter has been active in several events this year. A new lodge was constructed and decorated on the northwest side of the campus. This was made possible through alumni contributions. The group also sponsored an Air Band concert for Jane Calcutt's proposed school for retarded children. Alpha Tau Omega men were the winners of the intramural football championship.

Chi Omega

Chi Omega is a national sorority that was founded in 1895. Union's Upsilon chapter has been active since 1924. The sisterhood holds scholarship as its foremost purpose and "Hellenic Culture and Christian Ideals" as its open motto.

Upsilon chapter upheld its distinguished past this year by winning the float competition during Homecoming Week and by having its president named to Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities.

Lambda Chi Alpha

Lambda Chi Alpha is an international fraternity that has been active since 1909. Union's chapter, Lambda Zeta-Zeta upholds the Christian standards and teachings of the original chapter. Lambda Chi Alpha is known as the "Fraternity of Honest Friendship." Every member is encouraged to better society through his unique talents and abilities. At this year's White Rose Formal, Kelley Churchill was chosen as Crescent Girl.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Little Sisters

Zeta Tau Alpha

Union's chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha, Beta Omega, has been active since 1935. The sisterhood encourages friendships that extend beyond college, service to one's community, and academic achievement. These goals are best illustrated by ZTA's motto: "Seek the Noblest." This year Zeta Tau Alpha was an active group on Union's campus. The sisters worked together to win the Greek Olympics and Zeta president Beth Heuiser was elected Miss Union.

Athletics

Union Enjoys the "Wide World of Intramurals"

Thrilling finishes as a desperation shot wins the game at the buzzer and a player slides home with the winning run in the last inning; tense moments as the eight ball hangs on the edge of the corner pocket and the last pin wobbles between defeat and victory; fierce competition as the women serve, set, and slam for the volleyball championship and the men knock heads seeking to win Union's version of the Super Bowl; all of these ingredients and more add up to the exciting Intramural program at Union University.

The Intramural program, directed by Coach Ron Barry, keeps the students busy during the fall and spring semesters competing in team sports, such as flag football, basketball, 3-pitch softball, soccer, and volleyball; and individual sports, like tennis, bowling, table tennis, billiards, racquetball and golf.

The Intramural program is designed to give athletic opportunities to the students who cannot participate on the varsity teams. Any student at Union may be a part of these activities by participating on an independent, BSU, fraternity or sorority team. The students are provided a way to work together and compete against each other for a common goal, the overall Intramural championship award which is given on Awards Day.

Fall Intramurals Set Competitive Pace for Spring

In the fall the men's cross country run and frisbee golf tournament went to BSU with Charles Kelley (BSU) taking top honors in the run and Tim Dukes (Lambda Chi Alpha) securing the latter top spot. The independent men wrapped up first place in soccer, volleyball, and the punt, pass, and kick trials. Ronnie Giddens (Alpha Tau Omega) was first in the PPK, and ATO Gold captured the football prize.

The fall Intramural women's program varies from the men's. Three pitch softball top honors fell to BSU Eagles who also managed to collect the highest point total in the cross country. Sandy Smith (Chi Omega) was the individual winner of the run. Chi Omega Red won the volleyball competition and Zeta Tau Alpha mastered the frisbee doubles with a winning exhibition by Kathy Mayfield and Beth Wright.

Spring activities included golf, basketball, and softball.

Baseball Bulldogs Eye NAIA Championship Crown

Jesse Parker, Mgr. Kenny Spray, Doug Kendall, Steve Boyd, Jon Cawley, John McCullough, Mgr. Don Myers, Coach Linn Stranak.

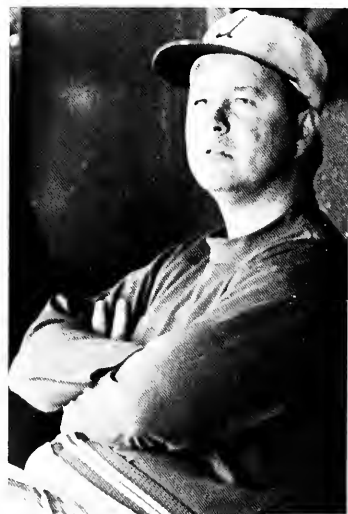

Coaches David Blackstock and Linn Stranak will have a long way to go to try to top the accomplishments of the 1982 Union baseball team, which compiled a school-record 40 wins against just 10 defeats, including a pair of triumphs over perennial national power and VSAC champion David Lipscomb.

The Bulldogs closed the season with a national ranking, listed 20th in the NAIA poll. The diamonders earned a berth in the District 24 Tournament and finished as runners-up after eliminating the Lipscomb club. Another seasonal highlight was the championship of the annual Christian College Tournament in Boca Baton, Florida; the second consecutive time the Bulldogs have claimed the title against several of the nation's finest teams. Union returned to defend the crown this spring.

Several players experienced outstanding seasons for the Bulldogs. Senior Dale Bivens of Jackson set a new school record for runs batted in with 56, and earned honorable mention All-America. Bivens joined freshman pitcher Ted Siler of Henderson, TN and junior designated hitter Jeff Dobbins of Memphis on the NAIA All-District 24 team. Siler was 7-2 and Dobbins hit .444 for the season.

All-VSAC selections were Bivens and junior Ronnie Giddens (.396), while junior lefthander Doug Kendall was voted the team's outstanding pitcher after an 8-1 mark with a team-leading 1.64 earned run average. Bivens topped the club in homers with 12 and batted .436 for the year.

For 1983, the Bulldogs face a tougher schedule but with a roster stocked with talent, including most of the personnel who constructed the 40-10 record in 1982. Union should be strong in every department, but especially on the mound where Kendall and Siler are joined by returnee Ronnie Smith of Jackson and newcomers Joe La Gesse (Bourbonnaiss, IL), Brian Bell (Sheldon, IL), Steve Boyd (Brandenburg, KY), and John McCullough (Obion, TN).

Behind the plate will be junior Barry Bishop of Bolivar, MO, aided by freshman Jeff Hofbauer of Cissna Park, IL.

Giddens and Dobbins, both of whom are well on their way to surpassing the all-time career batting average record at Union, anchor an impressive infield that also includes senior Terry Gossett (Asheville, NC), juniors Rusty Shuler (Sand Springs, OK), Jon Cawley (Union City, TN), and Lynn Yarbrough (Steele, MO), and freshman Jeff Wyatt (Memphis, TN).

Union had a 65-game schedule that included contests with Memphis State and Middle Tennessee State. Lipscomb, Belmont, and Trevecca again furnished the toughest VSAC opposition for the Bulldogs.

With the strength represented by the 1982 squad and the newcomers, Union's future seemed secure.

Tennis Team Seeks Third Trip To Nationals

The 1982 season was a banner year for Coach Peggy Stanfill's Lady Bulldog tennis team, which made its second consecutive trip to the NAIA National Tournament in Kansas City, MO, tying for 12th in the competition. Union finished second in both the VSAC and District 24 tournaments for the second straight year after completing VSAC Western Division play with an unblemished 14-0 record. Overall, Stanfill's squad posted a 20-1 mark.

Leading the way in the national tournament showing was freshman Sondra Taylor of Hernando, MS. Taylor, who played the number two singles position during the season, earned honorable mention All-American honors by winning her way into the final 16 at Kansas City.

Compiling the best singles records during the regular season were Judith Dungan of Humboldt, TN, and Roxie Denniston of Somerville, TN each with a 13-1 campaign. The duo teamed to head the way in doubles competition with a perfect 14-0 mark.

The outlook for the 1983 season was just as bright for Union, as Stanfill returned virtually the entire team along with freshman recruit Mary Anne Stephenson of Jackson, one of the city's finest players. She joined with Taylor and senior Annette Edmonds of Big Stone Gap, VA to give the Lady Bulldogs an extremely strong lineup in the first three positions. Edmonds already has one VSAC individual championship to her credit.

There was little drop in quality for the next three spots. Denniston, Dungan, and Allyson Hobbs of Union City, TN, all had outstanding years last season. Backing them up were Lee Ann Hobbs of Union City, and newcomers Anita King of Sesser, IL, and Rhonda Jagers of Appomattox, VA. The doubles lineups were set to be Stephenson and Taylor at number one, Edmonds and Lee Ann Hobbs at two, and Denniston and Allyson Hobbs at three.

Top challenges in the VSAC tournament came from Carson-Newman, the defending conference champion.

Upgraded Schedule Means Tough Tennis Competition

Returning five of the seven players who helped produce a remarkable turnaround last season, Union's men's tennis team enters the 1983 campaign on an enthusiastic note despite facing the school's toughest schedule ever.

Coach Ron Barry's squad won 16 and lost only 9 matches a year ago, quite an improvement from the 1-18 mark posted by the 1981 team. To match that achievement again this season will be a much tougher task, due to the graduation of Chris Maxwell and Roger Smith and the upgrading of the schedule.

Among the Bulldog opponents this year are Gulf South Conference schools North Alabama and UT-Martin, Ohio Valley Conference for Tennessee Tech, the University of the South, and Central College of Iowa. The Bulldogs also play a full slate of VSAC Western Division matches before traveling to Nashville in May for the VSAC Tournament. In all, 23 matches are scheduled, and eight of last season's 16 victories were over teams that do not appear on this year's list.

Heading the returnees is junior Mark Patey, who will play at number one singles after two seasons in the second slot. Patey is presently Jackson's Roberts Cup champion and had an outstanding tournament record this past summer.

At number two is sophomore Kevin Ezell, who established a Union record for victories in a season with 21 a year ago. Freshman Dusty Doddridge of Memphis takes over the number three singles position, while sophomore Russ Cantrell moves up a notch to number four after an outstanding freshman campaign.

Floyd Rowe, the most improved player on the squad and also the only senior, will man the number five post, and sophomore Mark Pendergrass will duel at number six.

Patey and Doddridge will team at number one doubles, with Ezell and Pendergrass playing at two and Rowe and Cantrell at three. All three pairings were impressive in winter workouts.

All the returning players posted winning records in 1982, despite a tremendous improvement in the overall play around the conference. In 1983, the toughest league competition should come from Christian Brothers and defending champion David Lipscomb. Swedish-flavored Trevecca Nazarene and always-tough Freed-Hardeman will also provide formidable opposition.

"We should have one of our best years in 1983," Coach Barry said, "even though it's possible our record may not look as good. We have upgraded the schedule in the hopes that we'll be a better team for the VSAC Tournament."

Fall Season Sets Bright Outlook For Spring Golf

The 1982 Union University Golf Team finished their spring third in the overall standings, both in the VSAC and in District 24 play. Though not receiving any team honors, individual honors were attained by Tracy Wilkins from Antioch, TN being named to the All-VSAC and All-District 24 teams.

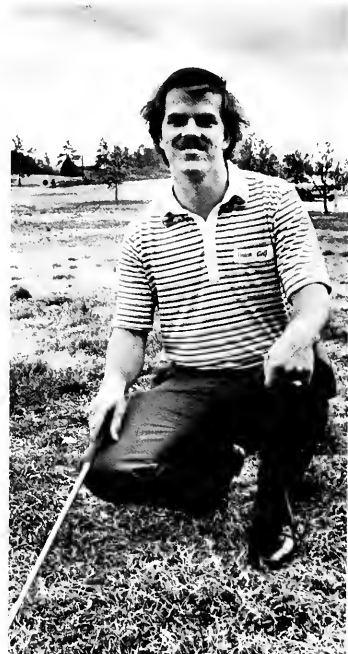

The 1982 team did not reach their goal of competing in the national tournament, but the 1983 team looks to accomplish that feat. The 1983 team is led by seniors, Wilkins, Phil Brewer of Jackson, TN, and Scott Powers from Selmer, TN. They will provide stability and leadership to a team that welcomes newcomer senior Greg McFadden of Trenton, TN and three freshmen, Steve Hamilton from Memphis, TN, Greg Watkins of Caruthersville, MO, and Mark Baird from Springfield, IL. The rest of the team consists of three returning players, junior Lee Simmons of Jackson, TN, and two sophomores, Hal Jones from Memphis, TN, and Clay Lindsey of Lexington, TN.

Coach Morris and the team were ready for the challenges they faced this spring. In commenting on the spring season Coach Morris said, "I feel very optimistic after the fall season. We have the potential to win and go as far as the national tournament by playing as well in the spring as we did in the fall."

Coach Morris and Powers both see the tough team of David Lipscomb standing in their way to the VSAC and District 24 titles. Morris also mentioned Lee College as a top challenger.

Encouraged by their impressive showing in the fall season, they placed high in two tournaments winning seventh in the University of North Alabama Classic, and placing sixth in the Tri-State Classic, beating major college teams Middle Tennessee State University and Arkansas State University.

Coach Morris and the 1983 team hope to see their goal of winning the district tournament and going to the national tournament in Fort Worth, Texas a reality.

Returning sophomore Clay Lindsey looks forward to improving his play this season.

Junior Lee Simmons works on his swing to bring success to the Union golf team.

Freshmen golfers Steve Hamilton and Greg Watkins will give depth and strength to the team.

Coach Don Morris, Director of Financial Aid, has coached the Union golf team for several years. Phil Brewer is a returning player while Greg McFadden begins his first season with the Union Bulldogs.

Graduating seniors Scott Powers and Tracy Wilkins will be seeking to increase both team and individual honors for the 1982-83 team. In their final year of play, they are eyeing the national tournament.

Records Fall During Lady Bulldog's Season

Senior Lady Bulldogs are kneeling.

Union's Lady Bulldog Basketball Team, while falling a game short of defending their VSAC championship, earned their second consecutive journey to the NAIA District 24 Tournament during the 1982-83 season.

Led by top scorers Lisa Caudle (17.3 points a game) and Ester Coleman (17.2), Union compiled a 16-8 record in the regular season on the way to a 10-2 conference mark and a 12-2 district slate. The Lady Bulldogs were 17-9 heading into the District 24 Tournament opener with top-seeded Christian Brothers College, ranked 16th in the nation.

Coleman was selected as the VSAC West Most Valuable Player by the conference coaches, and joined previous two-time winner Caudle on the All-VSAC Team. Caudle closed her Union career with over 2100 points, 900 rebounds, 590 assists, and 290 steals, and now holds a host of school records in both offensive and defensive categories.

Chester County prep star junior Cassandra Howard shoots a jump shot as Ester Coleman, Kristie Blurton and Vicky Swindell prepare to position for the rebound.

Senior Ester Coleman was named VSAC West Most Valuable Player.

The Lady Bulldogs opened the season with a 96-70 trouncing of Lane in which junior Cassandra Howard netted 26 points and sophomore Brenda Ross pulled down 11 rebounds. Union then departed for sunny Orlando, Florida, to participate in the University of Central Florida Sun Roast Invitational Tournament.

Coach David Blackstock's squad drew top-seeded Valdosta State in the opening round and dropped a hard-fought 93-87 decision despite Coleman's 37 points and 12 rebounds. The next night, Caudle gunned in 22 and Kristie Blurton came off the bench to ignite a second-half spurt with eight assists to defeat Troy State (AL) 82-69.

In the tournament consolation finals, the Lady Bulldogs were nothing short of awesome in steamrolling Montevallo, AL 125-65. Coleman set an NAIA record with 44 points in the contest and Caudle poured in 28 as Union's achievement helped the winners gain an NAIA ranking of 13th in the opening poll, Union's highest ever.

Union returned home to nip David Lipscomb 93-91 in overtime as Caudle slammed in 31 points and Howard handed out a season-high 11 assists. Despite another NAIA record-setting performance Caudle (21 field goals in a game), her 42 points went for naught as Western Kentucky won a 106-79 homecoming decision over the Lady Bulldogs.

Union then began play in its second tournament with an 82-76 win over Lambuth in the first round of the ARC event at Lane. Coleman fired in 27 points in the victory and then added 17 the next night as Union claimed the championship with a 76-70 triumph over Freed-Hardeman. Freshman Vicky Swindell gathered in 12 rebounds and blocked five shots for the winners.

The Lady Bulldogs dropped a 72-67 decision to UT-Martin despite Caudle's 18 points and Coleman's 17 rebounds, and then a 26-point effort by Caudle was wasted as Union fell to Vanderbilt 90-73 in Nashville. Union rebounded for its most satisfying win crushing arch-rival Lambuth 93-63 in the losers' gym as Caudle scored 20 and Coleman had eight rebounds and eight assists.

Two more losses on the road followed. CBC captured a 63-60 verdict despite 19 points by Caudle, and UT-Martin won 73-68 while offsetting Caudle's 23 points and Coleman's 12 rebounds. But Swindell tallied 16 to lead a balanced attack as Union regained its winning ways with a 76-51 rout at Bethel.

Ester Coleman, who at one point was ranked at the number two spot in the nation, defends her territory in Union's successful revenge against CBC's Lady Bucs.

CBC and Belmont. The skein began

The Lady Bulldogs then polished off Freed-Hardeman 64-51 in Henderson as Coleman scored 17 and Ross snared 11 rebounds, and Union again topped Lambuth 67-52 as Caudle netted 22. The winning streak reached four in a row when Swindell's incredible 13-of-16 shooting accounted for 28 points in an 85-62 romp over David Lipscomb in Nashville. Swindell's performance set a Union record for accuracy from the field for a single ballgame in which a player successfully attempted more than 10 shots.

The Bradford freshman added 23 the next game as Union dumped Freed-Hardeman 81-60 with help from Lisa Jackson's 10 rebounds, but the victory string ended when the Lady Bulldogs blew a 17-point first-half lead at Belmont in a heartbreaking 67-65 defeat despite Coleman's 29 points.

Union then reeled off four more wins in a row, including revenge on with an 82-58 romp at Lane in which Caudle netted 20. Union then used 18 points each from Caudle and Coleman to hand CBC its only district loss in a 74-67 decision.

Howard came off the bench to score 20 as Blackstock's club upended Belmont 64-54, and Audrey Hunt's 16 counters led the way in an 87-49 trouncing of Bethel. The regular season closed with a 64-58 defeat at Western Kentucky in which Caudle tallied 16 points.

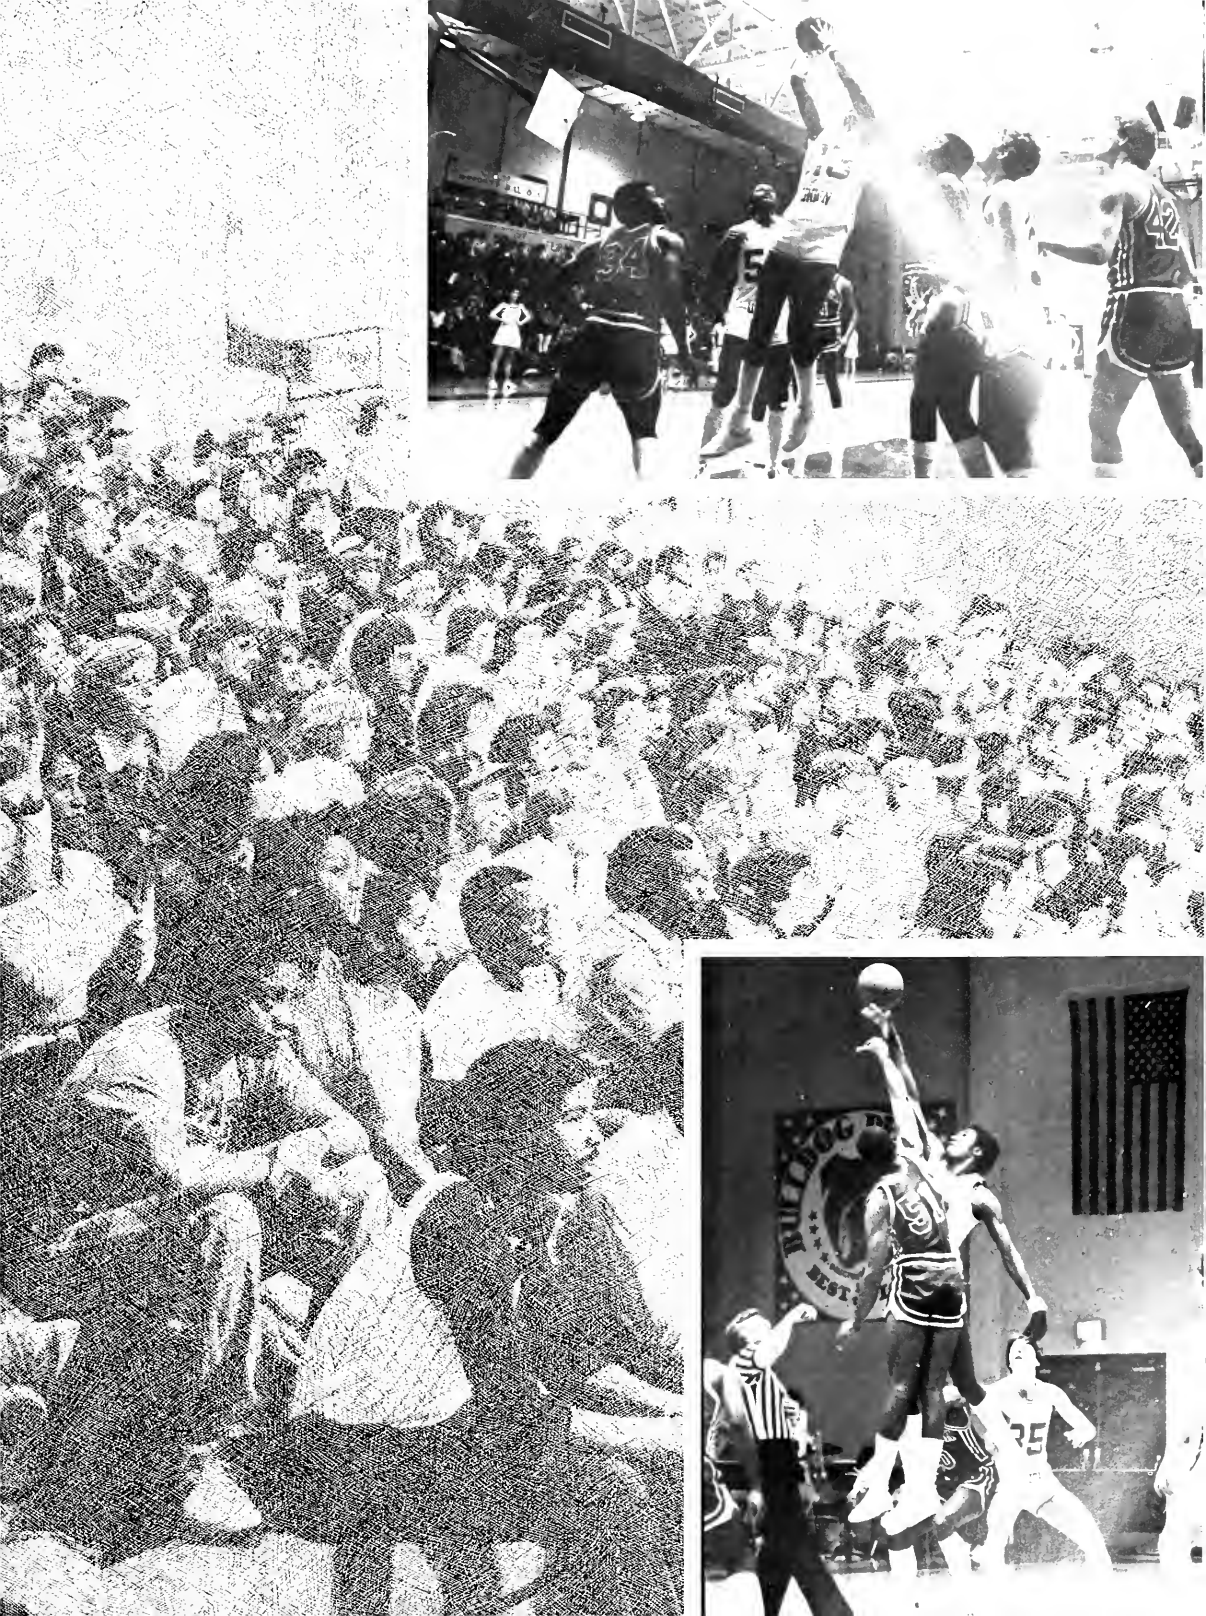

The Lady Bulldogs opened the VSAC Western Division Tournament by pounding Bethel 80-55 behind Caudle's 14 points and seven assists, but Union was upset at home by Belmont 58-50 in the semifinals despite Coleman's 15 points. CBC defeated Belmont for the VSAC West title, enabling Union to qualify for the NAIA District 24 tourney as the west's second seed.

Union University's Bulldog basketball team provided plenty of excitement but only moderate success during the 1982-83 season, compiling a 9-19 record which included eight defeats by five points or less. Coach Jim Swope's squad highlighted the year with a road triumph in double overtime over conference champion Trevecca, and also captured two of three games against arch-rival Lambuth College.

Union opened the campaign by losing an 81-76 decision at powerful Arkansas College despite Tony Jones' 27 points and a 11 assist effort by point guard Mike Lovelady. The Bulldogs then began play in the Harding University Invitational in Searcy, Arkansas with an 85-70 conquest of the School of the Ozarks, sparked by Barry Tidwell's 23 points and Danny Montgomery's 10 rebounds.

In the championship contest, however, the Bulldogs fell to host Harding by a 90-72 margin although Jones netted 20 points. Tidwell and Lovelady were named to the All-Tournament team.

College 93-74 in the home opener as Jones canned 28 points and Montgomery pulled down 15 rebounds, but the Bulldogs ran into a second-half buzz saw in their next outing, falling 90-68 to UT-Martin.

Another tournament opener, this time in the Bicentennial Exchange Club event at Lambuth, produced an exciting triumph for the Bulldogs. Jones slammed in 31 first-half points and finished with a career-high 40 as Union nipped Lambuth 84-83.

In the title game, Union battled down to the wire but dropped a close 80-73 verdict to Freed-Hardeman. Tidwell tossed in 24 points and Montgomery gathered in 11 rebounds.

That game initiated a four-game losing streak for the Bulldogs. Union fell at home to 1982 NAIA Tournament participant David Lipscomb by a 63-60 score as Jones led the scoring with 15 and Mike Greer topped the rebounders with seven. The Bulldogs then journeyed to Rust College and were pounded 87-51, with Greer and James Bass scoring 10 points each for the losers.

Union hosted Southwestern and suffered its most discouraging defeat of the season, letting a healthy lead slip away before dropping an 83-81 decision. Tidwell netted 22 in the contest.

Swope's crew rebounded from the heartbreaker to win a pair of ballgames. The Bulldogs stunned 1983 regular season VSAC champion Trevecca 68-66 in double overtime in Nashville as Jones dominated play with a 25-point, 13-rebound performance. In the first game following the Christmas holidays, Tidwell and Montgomery tallied 19 points apiece and Jones pulled down 15 boards as Union handed visiting Trinity (IL) an 84-64 pounding.

After that, however, the Bulldogs dropped five straight contests. Lambuth avenged the tournament defeat by stopping Union 85-72, holding Jones to 17 points. Christian Brothers College captured a 63-56 game in Memphis

Junior forward James Bass, a transfer from Jackson State Community College, averaged 11.6 points and seven rebounds per game while giving the Bulldogs good inside play.

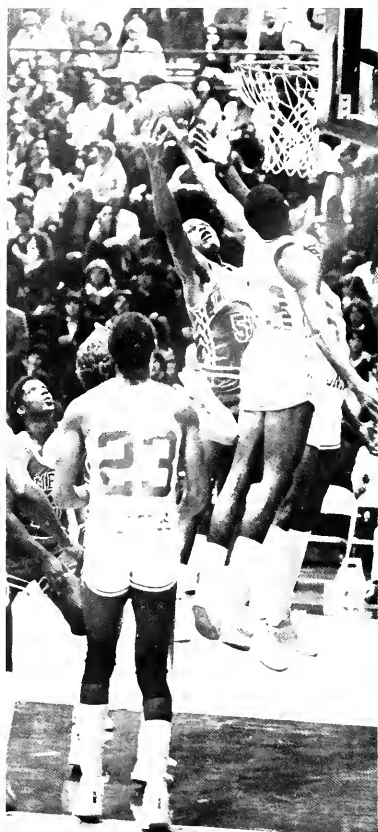

Senior Barry Tidwell averaged 15 points a game and gave the team needed leadership.

despite a 17-point, eight-rebound effort from Bass. Back in Jackson, Arkansas College turned a final-minute turnover into a 53-50 win although Lovelady and Bass scored 10 each and Kelly Hardcastle compiled nine rebounds and six assists.

Union lost another narrow decision at Bethel College in McKenzie, when 16 points by Bass weren't enough to overcome a 61-57 margin. Freed-Hardeman then edged the Bulldogs 70-68 on a 20-footer at the final buzzer, offsetting 19 point performances by Jones and Tidwell.

The losing streak was halted when the Bulldogs knocked off Lambuth 53-50 with Jones scoring 20 and Tidwell grabbing eight rebounds. Swope's forces followed with another solid outing in Nashville, but lost 74-72 to Lipscomb despite Tidwell's 20 points and seven assists by Lovelady.

Tony Jones, Barry Tidwell, and Winston Varnado work hard for position underneath the board.

Bass and Tidwell shot Union back into the winners' circle by scoring 24 points apiece in a 72-67 triumph over Freed-Hardeman, avenging the earlier defeats. Bass also had 12 rebounds in that contest, and scored 19 in the next game, but Union fell to Trevecca in Jackson 61-54.

The following week produced yet another pair of single-basket defeats. Belmont College claimed a 65-63 overtime decision in Nashville although Bass scored 16 and Montgomery gathered in 11 boards. Lane then recorded a 74-72 triumph despite Lovelady's 16 assists, a performance that equaled Union's all-time single-game total. Tidwell scored 26 points in that loss.

Union then won two in a row, with Jones scoring 27 in a 98-85 rout of homestanding Southwestern. Lovelady handed out 12 assists in the victory and then added 10 more as the Bulldogs belted CBC 97-89. Union jumped to a 31-8 advantage in just seven minutes and hung on for the win as Tidwell scored 22 points and Jones collected 13 rebounds.

Union closed the regular season with two home defeats. Belmont overcame 16 rebounds by Bass and 12 points by Jones to post a 70-56 victory, and Bethel won 68-60 despite Montgomery's 17 counters.

In the opening round of the VSAC Tournament, Union fell to Belmont in Nashville 83-66 despite Jones' 22 points and nine rebounds by Bass. The Bulldogs were 4-10 in the VSAC West (tied for 6th) and closed with a 5-1 mark in District 24.

Jones, who averaged 15.4 points a game, closed his outstanding 116-game Union career with a total of 1,665 points and 672 rebounds hitting over 50 per cent of his field goal attempts.

Academics

President Craig Celebrates Fifteen Years At Union University

Union University is not the same college it was when Dr. Robert Craig stepped onto the campus on July 31, 1967 as its seventeenth president. It has blossomed into a multi-faceted institution ministering not only to the needs of the students and faculty, but also to the needs of the Jackson community and the West Tennessee area.

During the fifteen years that Dr. Craig has been here, enrollment has increased nearly 70 percent. New academic offerings have strengthened the curriculum. The budget has been balanced for fifteen consecutive years without a cutback in faculty or in programs. On top of these accomplishments, a totally new campus on Highway 45 By-Pass was planned, constructed and financed. Dr. Craig has said, "Union is living in the midst of miracles." We believe that Dr. Craig is one of those miracles.

Jim Austin, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, welcomes Dr. Craig.

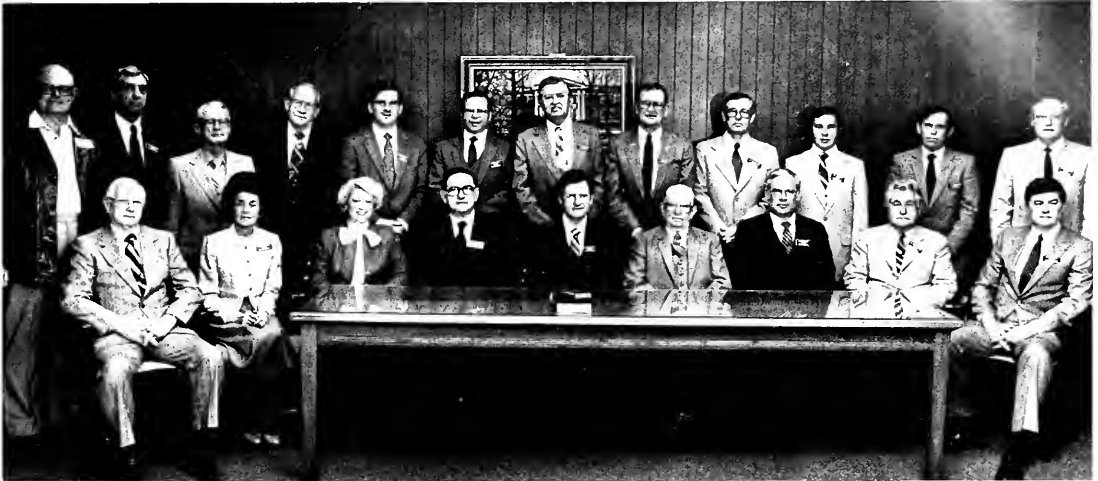

Trustees

The Board of Trustees is a group of men and women made up of business and community leaders, ministers, educators, and professional persons. All trustees are elected by the Tennessee Baptist Convention which is constituted as "a body politic and corporate."

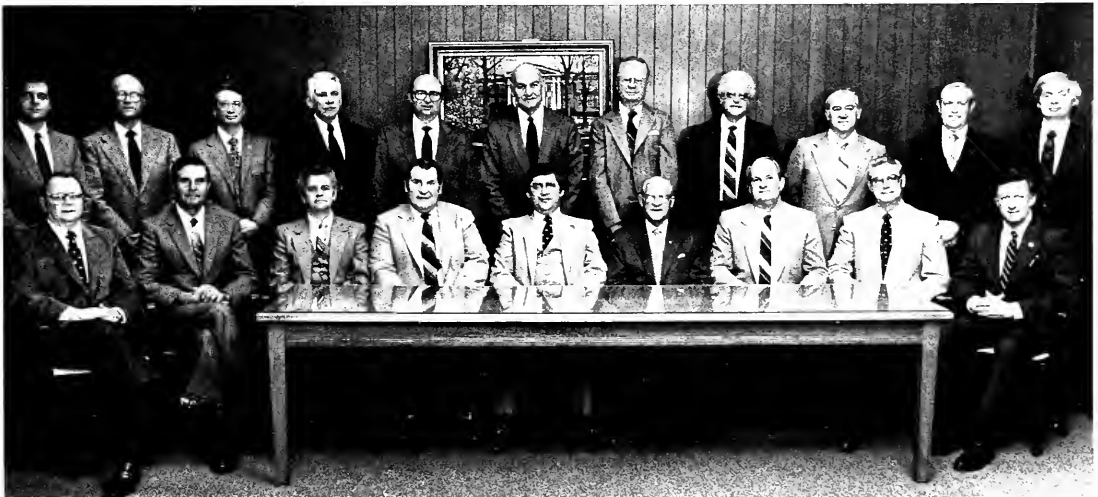

Although the Board is not directly involved in administration or academic matters, their ultimate objective is the full development of the total personality of Union's students in order that they may fulfill mature, responsible, and creative roles in society. It aspires to the goal of attaining excellence in education at Union; therefore it promotes superior scholarship.

School of Fine Arts

Man longs for self-expression, yet communication is seemingly hindered by man-made limitations. Understanding often occurs when man chooses to search beyond the limitations.

The Fine Arts deal with the creative expressions of man through aural, visual, and kinetic means. They lead the student to deal with the concept of beauty, and to analyze works considered important to man's perception of beauty. Courses are designed to teach individual skill in developing a solid technique of performing or creating the arts on one hand, and to gain an overview of the history and philosophy of music, the visual arts, and drama on the other.

Dr. Patricia Pinson, Dean of the School of Fine Arts

Music

Dr. Kenneth Hartley
Department Chairman

Union University's Music Department offers a comprehensive music program with basic study leading to careers in such positions as Minister of Church Music or private teaching. A Bachelor of Music Degree as well as the Bachelor of Arts with a major in music are available.

During the academic year the music department sponsors a Symphonic Band Concert and presentations by the Union University Singers and Chorus.

Other groups within the department are the Stage Band, Proclamation, and Covenant. These groups perform, giving their members excellent experience in performance. The two organizations sponsored by the department are Phi Mu Alpha and Sigma Alpha Iota.

Art

The Art Department of Union University seeks not only to train art majors, but also to allow other students to discover their own potential creativity. Open work areas encourage freedom of movement and mind as the student expresses his effort in watercolor, oil, pottery, print or other mediums.

The department sponsors three art awards and two campus organizations, Kappi Pi and Art Guild.

School of Humanities

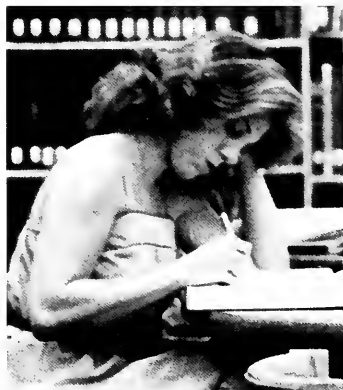

Humanities: "the branch of learning having primarily a cultural character." It is a study of man's history, how he thinks and reasons, what he believes and how he is able to communicate with others.

The Humanities focus on the place of the individual in society and familiarize students with spoken and written approaches by which people have interpreted life's meaning. In the process, students widen their spiritual and intellectual horizons, learn to prefer one answer to another and one mode of expression to another. And very importantly, they develop the valuable skills of communication: reading, listening, evaluating, writing and speaking. Within the School of Humanities there are four separate and distinct departments of instruction: Languages; Religion and Philosophy; English, Journalism, and Speech; and History and Political Science.

Dr. James Baggett, Dean of the School of Humanities

Sheri Murphy uses some of her free time to study in the library.

Languages

Dr. Sara Harris
Assistant Professor

Cynthia Jayne
Acting Chairman

The study of a modern foreign language means much more than memorizing lists of verb conjugations. It is a key to the understanding of another culture. Our primary goal in the basic language courses is to teach students how to begin to communicate in a second language. In order for that communication to be most effective, students must also develop a sense of understanding of the history and customs of the people who speak that language.

For the majority of those who complete one or two years of language, the importance of that study lies in its value as an auxiliary skill. Many government and private agencies are very aware of the lack of qualified personnel with second language skills. We are working to focus our department toward a more practical, direct application of communication in the second language.

Religion and Philosophy

Dr. David Irby

Dr. James Jones
Associate Professor

The Religion and Philosophy department offers courses in (1) Biblical languages (Greek), (2) Biblical studies, (3) Philosophy and (4) practical courses designed to aid pastors and other church leaders in preparing their tasks.

The goals and objectives are to attempt to help the students gain both a knowledge and an appreciation for the Bible, to help the student to think critically, using good judgement, and to work with the Vice-President of Religious Affairs in providing special guidance to students in preparing for church-related vocations.

Part-time instructors in the department are: Dr. Hyran Barfoot, Dr. John Adams, Mr. Scott Brewer, and Dr. Walter Taylor.

Dr. Clyde Tilley
Professor

English and Journalism

Cindy Turner checks a footnote reference with Dr. Louise Bentley.

The Department of English, Journalism, and Speech is a growing and diversified department. Presently offering two majors and three minors, the department seeks to develop expertise in the use of the written and spoken language in communication and to stimulate the critical analysis and appreciation of literary masterpieces.

The Department has seven full-time professors and two part-time professors. Dr. C. C. Kinnison is new to the department.

The department members feel that these three areas make a vital and indispensable contribution to the academic atmosphere of Union University.

Under the sponsorship of Dr. George E. Clark, the department honorary is the National Sigma Tau Delta, for students proficient in writing.

History and Political Science

The greatest emphasis of the History Department is on teaching students to use books, the finest source of history. It is not our intention that students should simply memorize facts and dates, but that they should learn to think. From class discussion and assigned readings we hope that they will form opinions and ideas of their own, not just memorize those of others.

This year we have had three part-time faculty in the Department: Bill Adams, Deborah Owen, and Ray Dickson.

School of Natural and Behavioral Sciences

The School of Natural and Behavioral Sciences consists of five separate departments. They are the Department of Biology, the Department of Chemistry, the Department of Mathematics and Computer Science, the Department of Psychology, and the Department of Sociology.

This is a widely varied field. Yet each area is directly related to man, whether through his environment, his behavioral characteristics, or his ability to understand and research nature through mathematics.

Here at Union we are striving to insure that students in these areas receive the best possible training. We seek to develop in our students the sense of curiosity which leads to discovery and a new awareness of the world around us. In doing so, we attempt to expose students to the stress, pressure, and demands of professional programs.

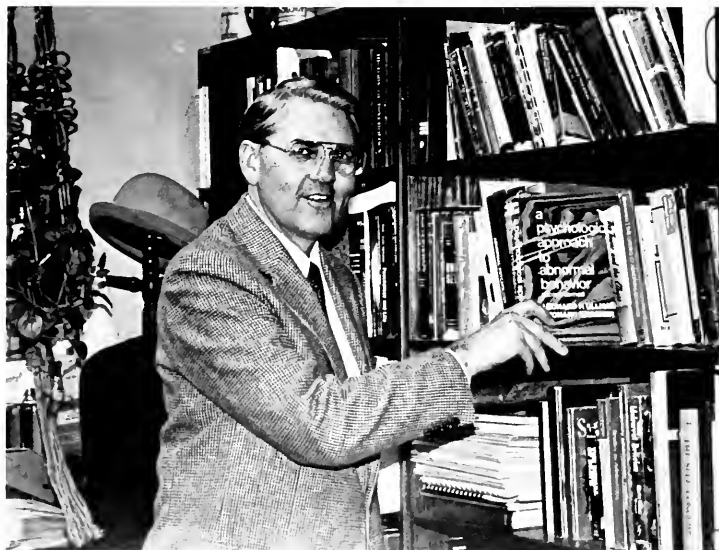

Biology

In teaching biological science in today's world, emphasis should be placed on motivating students to develop investigative technique. Scientific research has resulted in the accumulation of facts too numerous to teach. Students must be taught to find and use these facts in attaining more knowledge and understanding.

Since most of our biology majors are pre-health field students, we realize the importance of exposing them to the stresses and demands of professional programs, and a solid foundation in biological sciences.

We once again hosted the West Tennessee Regional Science Fair in March to promote interest in science at the junior and senior high school levels.

Chemistry

The Chemistry/Physics department's aims are to help students understand the physical world in which we live, to gain skill in problem solving and work, to develop an inquiring mind, and to understand the scientific method of exploration. We prepare students for their career objectives and seek to aid them in attaining their goals upon graduation.

Future plans include expansion of the West Tennessee Regional Science Fair held annually at Union, and the possible development of a physical science education degree.

Psychology

The Department of Psychology serves as a service department and a major within the college. It serves the core curriculum, the School of Nursing, the Education Department and the Department of Social Work by providing required courses for each of these.

Our majors consist of three groups: individuals who plan to go to graduate school, church related vocations and individuals going into the work force.

Our purpose is to help students to recognize some of the more basic laws of human behavior and relate those laws to their everyday living.

Dr. Bill Bouchillon
Department Chairman, Psychology

Dr. David Vickery
Assistant Professor

Sociology

We in the Sociology Department like the approach of a "liberal arts" education. We feel that this is a very appropriate way to broaden a person's intellectual, social, and behavioral outlook on life. Teaching as well as learning should be a dynamic process that involves both the teacher and student in the discovery and examination of the multifaceted areas of life.

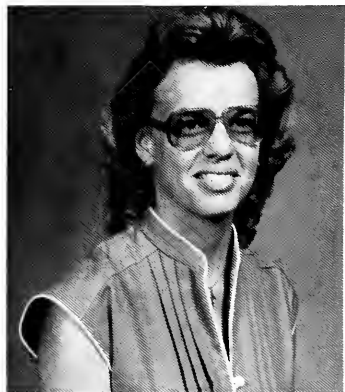

We have a new full-time person in the Sociology Department. Brenda Collins is taking the responsibility of overseeing the social work area. Our department supervises the Sociology Club.

School of Professional Studies

Dr. Howard Newell, Dean

The School of Professional Studies includes the Department of Business, the Department of Education, and the Department of Health and Physical Education.

Each department seeks to prepare students for employment in the professional work force. Through hands-on experience with up-to-date equipment, actual work experience, and classroom instruction, we try to give students a well-rounded field of education which will give them the greatest benefit after graduation.

In the above area it is necessary to maintain a professional attitude at all times. We try to instill this attitude in every student.

Education

Teaching is said to be the noblest of all callings for two reasons. First, the teaching profession is a big business. The late President John Kennedy reminded us that "our progress as a nation can be no swifter than our progress in education." Thus, with such high stakes, it is little wonder that our future is invested in the education of our children and the preparation of our teachers.

Second, teaching is noble because the end product is directly related to the example that is set by the teachers. Therefore, the burden of responsibility on the American teacher is without equal.

Business

The Department of Business Administration offers majors and minors in four areas: accounting, management and marketing, economics and finance, and office administration. All four programs are designed to prepare students for the responsible, entry-level positions in the world of work.

One change in the office administration program will be the implementation of an associate degree in office administration for students who desire more immediate entry into the job market. The second major change involves the acquisition of computer-based, word processing equipment.

The Department of Business Administration sponsors an active Business Club.

Physical Education and Health

Dr. Linn Stranak
Department Chairman

The highest aim of the Health and Physical Education Department is the total health of an individual. The activity, intramural, and varsity athletic programs all center around and strive toward each student's health. Every instructor hopes that all students who come through Union will acquire lifetime activity skills to not only develop but to maintain a healthy body throughout their life. The effectiveness of the program will soon be enhanced by the addition of a new athletic complex now under construction.

The department has expanded its curriculum this year by adding a new major in the field of Church Recreation.

All P.E. majors can be involved in the P.E. Club which sponsors several activities throughout the year.

School of Nursing

The growth of Union's nursing program exemplifies the continuing strides of the faculty and students toward better health care in our future. Nursing is not limited to care of the patient but extends to the families and all others concerned. Union's Nursing Department realizes the need for this instilled knowledge and compassion when graduates begin their professional service.

The nursing degrees offered at Union may be interpreted as hours of study, many sacrifices, and a genuine desire to make a difference. A Union nursing graduate accepts that diploma with confidence in what he or she has received and ultimately in what he or she will give.

The end has finally arrived; your yearbook is complete. Countless hours of toil have gone into making this a book to remember. On the days when others were outside enjoying the sunshine or taking a walk in the woods, my staff and I were sweating over those pages that just didn't seem to want to come together or methodically printing picture after picture in a stuffy darkroom. We had a single purpose in mind; we wanted this to be a book packed with your memories — the memories that you helped make. Now that it is a finished product, we hope you enjoy it.

Creating a yearbook is a long and tedious process that requires extensive planning and tremendous dedication. Much of the success of a yearbook depends on the calibre of the staff. I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to a staff that gave of themselves unselfishly until all of the deadlines were met. Much of the innovativeness of the 1983 Lest We Forget came with my creative associate, Karen Campbell. Without Karen, our book would have been a mere dream. Lots of love goes to Mrs. Betty Foellinger who supplied that extra motivation and unfailing moral support. Special thanks go to Joe Westbury who rescued us on numerous occasions.

In conclusion, I would like to challenge each of you to take a few minutes and look at your book with a friend. Start today and make the best of your years at Union by sharing with a friend. As you share the love that Christ has shared with you, remember it is He who gives you hope in life. It is He who gives you the strength to be the unique creation that you are. Be that individual!
